ReBuairtel to Atlanta 2/13/67.

Informants and sources, Atlanta, have no information concerning firearms range for the exclusive use of Klan members. There are, of course, numerous privately owned firearms ranges on private property in various locations in the area covered by the Atlanta Division. It is quite possible that any of these ranges may be used by Klansmen with the approval of the owner or owners, however, Atlanta has no information concerning any range used exclusively by captioned organization or any other Klan organizations.

Atlanta will remain alert for any such situation or information relating to any range which is made available for a Klan organization and the Bureau will be advised of such information.

RACIAL MATTERS - KLAN

On [redacted] Atlanta [redacted] advised on February 12, 1967, members of the Barnesville Klavern of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., learned that John Grant, a Klansman from Milner, Georgia, had been shot by Negroes on February 11, 1967. [redacted]

[redacted] all Klansmen, went to Orchard Hill, Georgia, armed to investigate the shooting of John Grant. They learned there had been an altercation at the "66" Truck Stop, Orchard Hill, Georgia, on the night of February 11, 1967, between five Negro brothers and some white men. The Negroes left the truck stop to return home and John Grant and two other white men had gone to the vicinity of the Negroes' homes. Grant and the other two white men were confronted by the five Negro brothers and in the ensuing melee Grant was shot and killed. The Klansmen learned the five Negro brothers had been arrested and charged with murder. b6 b7C

[redacted] made the statement that since the Negroes were in custody they, the Klansmen, should wait until they saw what the law would do to the Negroes and if the law did not do anything then they, the Klan, would. [redacted] said he had been out of action so long he would enjoy getting into a little action.

On February 18, 1967, [redacted] stated that he wanted to kill the Negroes if the law turned them loose.

On March 8, 1967, [redacted] Spalding County Sheriff's Office, Griffin, Georgia, advised the following persons had been arrested for the murder of John Grant and

On March 8, 1967, [redacted] Georgia Bureau of Investigation Agent, Griffin, Georgia, advised the five Evans brothers and some white men had gotten into an argument at the "66" Truck Stop, Orchard Hill, Georgia, and he understood these people agreed to meet later for a "shoot-out". [redacted] said John Grant and two other white men drove to the area where the Evans brothers reside and were confronted there by the Evans brothers. [redacted] said one of the white men with Grant ran away. He said [redacted] tried to shoot his .22 caliber pistol and the gun blew up in his hand causing [redacted] to lose his hand. He stated John Grant was shot and killed. [redacted] advised the cases against the Evans brothers would be presented to the Spalding County Grand Jury.

[redacted] was advised that a threat was made by [redacted] to kill the Evans brothers in the event the law did not handle them.

Synopsis:

Cincinnati Confidential Source advised Ohio Klan members generally are in disagreement with Southern Klan leaders. [REDACTED] has held two small initiations on his farm at Oregonia, Ohio, past six months. Estimated 21 hard core NKKKK members in Southern Ohio. One cross burned on [REDACTED] farm New Years Eve Oregonia, Ohio. No incidents involved. [REDACTED] Columbus, Ohio, self-admitted Klansman and undercover Agent for Columbus, Ohio, PD, plans on writing a book on Ohio Klan in future.

- P -

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. and of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc. are contained in the appendix of this report.

A. GENERAL ACTIVITIES AND MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

On [REDACTED] furnished the following information: MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

The majority of Klan people in Ohio who are "in the know" have long become dissatisfied with JAMES VENABLE and [REDACTED]. Most feel they have not come through or lived up to their promises. They sent in no experienced personnel to set up the organization and evidently only care about themselves.

These same people have also lost faith in [redacted]
[redacted] The complete financial structure is weak and a great deal of money is now required to get the Klan moving again in Ohio. There is strong belief that after the May, 1965, rally on [redacted] farm that VENABLE and [redacted] left with all the money and for all practical purposes this was the last that was heard from them.

On [redacted] advised as follows:

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

[redacted] There was supposed to be an initiation of Klansmen on [redacted] farm Sunday, October 9, 1966. The initiating team was to consist of [redacted] and [redacted] and [redacted] persons were to be initiated but only [redacted] made an appearance. The initiating team also failed to show up. This made [redacted] very unhappy and as a result no one was initiated. Ohio

On [redacted] advised that [redacted] held a Klan initiation on his farm Sunday, October 23, 1966. The initiation was decided on at the last meeting and [redacted] individuals were present with approximately [redacted] persons being initiated. The identity of the individuals initiated will be furnished at a future date. b2 b6 b7C b7D

On [redacted] advised as follows:

It is closely estimated that there are approximately 21 active hard core NKKKK members residing in the Southern Ohio area. Of course this figure can change from time to time depending on types of Klan activities scheduled in Southern Ohio.

[redacted] has been talking about holding another Klan initiation on his farm Sunday, November 20, 1966, but this date has not been specifically established as yet. When the exact date is known, it will be furnished along with appropriate details.

On [redacted] advised that no one made an appearance at [redacted] farm on November 20, 1966, for initiation into the NKKKK except the initiating crew which consisted of [redacted], and [redacted] [redacted] was naturally disappointed and admitted the NKKKK future in Ohio appears dismal.

On [redacted] advised as follows:

Several of [redacted] Klan associates held a discussion on his farm recently to decide if any crosses should be burned in the Warren, Butler, or Hamilton County areas during the coming New Years holiday. A great deal of talk took place, however, nothing positive was concluded and at this point it is doubtful that any positive action will take place.

Cooperation continues to be lacking among members of the NKKKK and it is extremely difficult to get anybody to assist in any projects or plans which are discussed.

On [redacted] advised that [redacted]
[redacted] from Akron, Ohio, is now understood to hold title [redacted] [redacted] in NKKKK of Ohio. [redacted] as visited on [redacted] farm several times in the last month and both he and [redacted] have continued talk about burning one or more crosses during New Years Eve. This is purely speculation at this point however.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

On [redacted] advised as follows:

Only one cross was burned New Years Eve, 1966-1967, and that one was burned on [redacted] farm at Oregonia, Ohio. A social gathering took place on the farm New Years Day with approximately [redacted] individuals being present. The identity of those present have been furnished. There is nothing planned by the Klan in the immediate future and most of the members are awaiting word from "higher up" but it is doubtful that this word will ever arrive.

Klan leadership and cooperation is still extremely lacking between the South and Ohio. Prospects now do not look bright for the future.

On [redacted] advised as follows:

On Saturday, January 28, 1967, a conference was held at Lodi, Ohio, consisting of NKKKK board members. A general discussion of policy took place and the location site was [redacted] residence. The general theme of the discussion followed that the Ohio Klan members would have to worry and protect themselves rather than be dependent on the Southern Klan leaders.

On [redacted] advised as follows:

[redacted] an individual who testified before Klan hearings in Washington, D. C., about two years ago, plans on writing a book concerning the Klan in Ohio. [redacted] has a reputation among Klansmen generally as being a "double-crosser" who became affiliated with the Klan for personal financial gain. This is probably the reason he is now planning to write a book about the Klan. A ghost writer will do the actual writing of the book but his identity is currently unknown. The publisher is also unknown at this time.

The Executive Board of the NKKKK in Ohio should hold a forthcoming meeting in the near future and issue certain directives. Some of the Southern Klan leaders will be in for a surprise when they learn that the Ohio Klan operation will be acting on its own after this Executive Board meeting, if it takes place. The Ohio group is loosely operated and receives almost no cooperation from the national organization in Georgia.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] continues to complain about having no available funds to continue organizing the Klan and his activities have been reduced a great deal in recent months. He talks about holding a Klan rally in the spring or summer however no plans have been made to this effect, as yet.

On [redacted] advised as follows:

[redacted] from Akron, Ohio, and another unidentified individual made about a two-week trip through the South and stated they hoped to visit some of the Klan leaders in the South but did not specifically identify which Klan leaders. [redacted] says that he is just about broke because of his Klan activities and at this point his Klan future does not look good.

CI 157-245

On [redacted] advised as follows:

[redacted] from Columbus, Ohio, who testified before Klan hearings in Washington, D. C. in the past, will meet with a book writer or publisher in Cincinnati, January 29, 1967.

[redacted] indicated the title of the book would read something like "Story Of The Klan In Ohio" and would consist of about 400 pages. Undoubtedly [redacted] motive is "money". [redacted] also indicated he will level a blast at the National Knights of the KKK and praise [redacted] and the United Klans of America. The meeting site is currently unknown and the identities of persons who will be there is also unknown.

On the event of [ ] and [ ] attended a Klavern [ ] meeting at the residence of [ ] in Marietta, Ga. Nothing of a particular significance transpired at this meeting other than a speech by [ ] in which he related that a white woman took her 5 - 6 year old son shopping at a department store in Marietta, Ga., about 3/13/67, and during the shopping, escorted the boy to the men's room. The woman waited outside the men's room and subsequently noted 3 young Negro youths departing the restroom "grinning". Inasmuch as she felt her son was taking a long time in the restroom, she solicited the assistance of a male clerk, who entered the men's room to find the boy lying on the restroom floor with his mouth taped and his private cut off. APPENDIX"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri, and [redacted] Norborne, Missouri, is the national coordinator. Statements by [redacted] and literature distributed by the organization in the past indicated its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; and resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms. b6 b7C

The Kansas City Star Newspaper, Kansas City, Missouri, has on numerous occasions, carried various articles concerning [redacted] and the "Minutemen," wherein it was stated that members of the organization participate in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics with machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms.

[redacted] has publicly stated on numerous occasions that the "Minutemen" as an organization does not buy or store arms or ammunition; however, the individual members of the organization maintain arms and ammunition, which is their constitutional right.

"Minutemen" literature mailed to members in the past has furnished instructions in the use of explosives and has also given details for the making of explosive compounds from such readily accessible ingredients as a common fertilizer, ammonium nitrate.

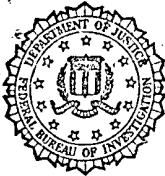

In May, 1966, a confidential source advised that [redacted] in a recent message to the national coordinators of "Minutemen," announced the "Minutemen" organization was being divided into two separate bodies. One group to be composed directly of members who have been able to maintain complete secrecy of their identity, from both the public and from Government investigative agencies. The second group to be made up of all members who have been publicly identified, or who there is reason to believe have been identified as "Minutemen" members by an agency of the Federal Government.

"MINUTEMEN"

In announcing the reorganization, [ ] stated that a complete resistance movement involving total resistance must involve not only guerrilla warfare, but that it must involve psychological and political warfare as well.

[ ] stated that what he was proposing and trying to effect was to build a political party that as such would have legal immunity, which would serve as a communications network for patriots that have other interests, and among whose members these other patriots can maintain their secrecy of identify. All future correspondence and communications on the national level will be done in the name of the Patriotic Party. [ ] also advised that if ever called to court, as he expected to be in the future, he was going to state that as far as the national organization is concerned, the "Minutemen" had ceased to exist. b6 b7C

[ ] in the announcement, continued to the effect there is no reason why at some future date, when the environment is more conducive to military action, that the Patriotic Party cannot be used once again to pull together various local organizations into one national organization. By acting both as a front and as a means of coordination, the Patriotic Party can be invaluable in the building of a future resistance movement.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] one of the two current leaders of the NKKKK in Ohio, on 4-2-67 informed him that he had been appointed National Head of the Klan Bureau of Investigation (KBI) with the inference that it was the KBI of the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (IEKKKK). [redacted] advised that JAMES R. VENABLE, [redacted] of the NKKKK, had re-instituted the idea of a merger of the NKKKK with the IEKKKK, which is [redacted] by [redacted] of St. Petersburg, Florida. [redacted] was somewhat hazy as to his explanation of this merger but basically indicated that the NKKKK and the IEKKKK are virtually the same organization with different names and the current NKKKK Klavern will be used to recruit Klansmen into the IEKKKK. [redacted] had in his possession a letter from [redacted] which he momentarily held before [redacted] and then added that [redacted] mentioned in the letter that [redacted] [redacted] the other current leader of the NKKKK in Ohio, had been in Florida for a weeks Klan training and that [redacted] had been made a Second Degree Klansman. He also stated that [redacted]

[redacted] during the initial stages of this meeting, appointed [redacted] head of the KBI for Ohio and indicated that he had the authority to make this appointment. In this connection, he advised that [redacted] letter was strictly confidential and he, [redacted] was only to discuss the contents with members of the KBI and inasmuch as [redacted] was appointed head of the KBI for Ohio, he was disclosing the contents of the letter to him.

The AT and TP offices will recall that during the second half of 1966, [redacted] was pushing the merger of the IEKKKK and NKKKK then suddenly dropped his efforts when VENABLE no longer condoned the idea. It is also to be noted that during the recent past, [redacted] has shown some dissatisfaction with the NKKKK and has indicated that he may go with another Klan organization.

The above is the first indication to the CV office that these efforts for a merger have possibly been re-instituted however, in view of [redacted] somewhat hazy explanation, the AT and TP offices are requested to advise if they are in possession of information in this direction or perhaps the possibility that [redacted] is making this effort on his own initiation.

For information of the Cleveland Office, Tampa has no characterization of either the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (IE KKKK) or of C. LEWIS FOWLER, however the enclosures (copies have been furnished to the Bureau by Pittsburgh) indicate that a move was made apparently in September 1966 to reactivate the IE KKKK, and same sent folder of pertinent facts about the organization.

It is to be noted that no effort to reactivate the IE KKKK has been reported in the area covered by Tampa Division.

Dr. C. LEWIS FOWLER, head of Maranatha Bible Seminary, 801 28th Avenue North, St. Petersburg, Florida is 84 years of age and deaf. He is a native of North Carolina, was ordained a minister in 1899 and holds degrees from Fagston Academy, Furman University, Newton Theological Seminary, Newton Center, Massachusetts and has studied at Oxford University. Re CV airtel to the Bureau, [ ] under caption [ ] advising of this informant's trip to the Atlanta area.

[ ] on [ ] informed that he returned from the Atlanta area early AM of 5/3/67. On Saturday 4/29/67 he attended what was scheduled to be a NKKKK initiation at Tucker, Ga., however, because non-Klansmen were present, the initiation was not held. However, at the affair [ ] learned there is much dissatisfaction with the leadership of the JAMES R. VENABLE, who was not present. From conversation with [ ] an [ ] from Ala., [ ] felt [ ] subtly indicated he would like to replace VENABLE as the leader of the NKKKK.

[ ] an Ohio NKKKK [ ] who accompanied [ ] to Atlanta purposely went to the Stone Mountain, Ga., residence of VENABLE early AM of 5/4/67 to catch VENABLE, because of his past avoidance of a confrontation with [ ] of Ohio NKKKK matters. VENABLE was supposedly in Texas and Calif., which may be information put out by VENABLE to avoid seeing NKKKK Ohio leaders, which he knew were due to come to the Atlanta area instant weekend.

[ ] did see VENABLE, who briefly advised that all Ohio NKKKK Offices were abolished. He then told [ ] that he had to go feed his horses and he agreed to return to confer with [ ] however, he never returned to keep this appointment.

[ ] informed that later that morning he ran into VENABLE on a back road in the Stone Mountain area and assumes VENABLE was there attempting to avoid [ ]. [ ] asked VENABLE to return to his residence where they could discuss Ohio Klan matters, however, VENABLE refused to do so and they briefly took up the matter on the back road. VENABLE advised that there are no longer any NKKKK state officers in Ohio, including the positions of Great Titan and Grand Dragon, although he did not specifically name any one individual. VENABLE advised that he wants to work on an individual Klavern basis, which [ ] feels would by-pass a state NKKKK organizational setup and thereby give VENABLE more direct control.

b6
b7C
b7D

VENABLE then mentioned that on April 30, 1967, [ ] held an election at his farm in Oregonia, Ohio, and as a result [ ] was ousted as the EC of Klavern [ ]. [ ] advised VENABLE that he had not been notified of the election and therefore the election was not legal. VENABLE agreed. [ ] then insisted that VENABLE write [ ] a letter to this effect. However, VENABLE originally refused, but then agreed to the letter which he wrote in longhand to the effect that the election was illegal and [ ] is still EC of Klavern #6.

It is [ ] opinion that VENABLE is getting more senile and absent minded by the manner in which VENABLE handles himself. In this regard he noted that VENABLE keeps contradicting himself.

The above information tends to indicate a dissatisfaction with VENABLE as the leader of the NKKKK, as well as possible friction on a National and State level. However, due to the nature of this information it would appear to be premature to incorporate this information into a LHM and is being set forth for recipient offices as a guide for further corroboration, especially in view of VENABLE's vacillation between various Klan groups within his organization and his contradictory nature. In this respect a detailed informant report of this matter will be furnished recipient offices who are in a good position to analyze the material.

The CV office will continue to follow developments in this matter.

Character: RACIAL MATTER - KLAN

Synopsis: [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] still considered Northern Ohio leaders of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK). [REDACTED] again pushing for reactivation of merger of Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan with NKKKK. Klavern #6, Cleveland, members, have engaged in Klan Kraft practice, and on 2/19/67, held a hearing on a former member who spoke openly of Klan matters while intoxicated.

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is contained in the appendix section of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTUREA. State Leadership

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

[REDACTED] of [REDACTED] informed that there has been no change in state leadership of the NKKKK in Northern Ohio, although state positions are not well defined and may, in fact, be non-existent. According to [REDACTED] the Northern Ohio state leadership of the NKKKK continues to be in the hands of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] although there has been little recent activity on their part.

B. State Connection With National Organization of NKKKK

[redacted] on [redacted] MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION advised that he recently learned that [redacted] of Klavern Number [redacted] Cleveland, Ohio, and [redacted] an active member of the NKKKK from Lodi, Ohio, went to Georgia where they conferred with JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on March 18, 1967.

VENABLE advised these Ohio Klansmen that he would stand behind their organizational activities in Ohio on behalf of the NKKKK such as weeding out non-dues payers and non-participators in Klan activities. VENABLE appeared to be in full agreement with any suggestions made by [redacted] or [redacted] which gave some question as to his actual interest in the NKKKK in Ohio, as he actually afforded no policy guides.

b6
b7C
b7D

C. Reactivation of Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (IEKKKK)

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] one of the two current leaders of the NKKKK in Ohio, on April 2, 1967, informed that he had been appointed National Head of the Klan Bureau of Investigation (KBI) with the inference that it was the KBI of the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (IEKKKK). [redacted] advised that JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, had re-instituted the idea of a merger of the NKKKK with the IEKKKK, which is headed by C. LEWIS FOWLER of St. Petersburg, Florida. [redacted] was somewhat hazy as to his explanation of this merger but basically indicated that the NKKKK and the IEKKKK are virtually the same organization with different names and the current NKKKK Klaverns will be used to recruit Klansmen into the IEKKKK.

[redacted] also mentioned that on [redacted] advised that he appointed [redacted] the [redacted] of Klavern [redacted] Cleveland, Ohio, as the head of the KBI for Ohio and indicated he had the authority to make this appointment.

CV 100-10261

Relative to the above, [ ] on [ ] advised on a national level that there was no activity underway which would indicate a merger of the NKKKK and IEKKKK.

[ ] on [ ] informed he has heard no further information of a possible merger between the NKKKK and IEKKKK. However, he recalled that during late 1967, [ ] and [ ] were pushing such a merger although during December, 1966, these plans were suddenly dropped.

[ ] further noted that [ ] has had recent discord with JAMES R. VENABLE and may be reactivating the idea of the IEKKKK because of his personal differences with VENABLE over the operation of the NKKKK in Ohio.

[ ] who is familiar with Klan activities in Pinellas County, Florida, on April 28, 1967, informed that C. LEWIS FOWLER is an old man with very few followers, perhaps only a dozen, in St. Petersburg, Florida. [ ] does not believe FOWLER is head of the IEKKKK due to his age, although FOWLER may represent himself as the head of IEKKKK. [ ] is of the opinion that FOWLER is either senile or suffers from some mental deficiency.

II. KLAVERNS

A. Klavern Number [ ] Cleveland, Ohio

[ ] on [ ] informed that the only currently operating NKKKK Klavern in Northern Ohio is Klavern Number [ ] Cleveland, Ohio, which carries 63 members of its rolls, of whom only about ten have shown any actual interest in the past few months. He noted that the only known officers of the Klavern Number [ ] are [ ] who is the [ ] and [ ] who is the [ ]. About $100.00 of the Klavern's funds are entrusted to [ ] who maintains these funds in his personal possession. Klavern Number 6 maintains no headquarters and has no publications.

III. ACTIVITIES

A. Klavern Number 6 Meetings

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that there has been no Klavern Number 6 meetings since January 15, 1967.

B. Klan Kraft Practice

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] members of Klavern [redacted] met informally with [redacted] at his residence in Cleveland, Ohio, on the night of [redacted] at which time they practiced Klan Kraft (Klan ceremonial rituals).

C. Klavern Number 6 Judicial Hearing

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that a Klavern [redacted] hearing was held on [redacted] at the residence of [redacted] in Cleveland. b2 b6 b7C b7D

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

MMMS. This hearing was based on charges by [redacted] that [redacted] and his [redacted] had threatened her with bodily harm and the countercharges brought by the [redacted] that [redacted] was [redacted] about the [redacted] and the Klan while she was intoxicated.

[redacted] noted that [redacted] recently resigned from the NKKKK and although invited to this hearing, [redacted] The [redacted] are current members of Klavern #6, and were present at this hearing in addition to [redacted] and [redacted] other Klavern #6 members.

[redacted] mentioned that as a result of this hearing, it was concluded that the [redacted] had, in fact, been talking about [redacted] [redacted] meaning that they threatened physical action against [redacted] when she openly gave away Klan secrets while intoxicated.

[redacted] was to be informed of the results of the hearing with the admonition that if she continues to discuss Klan matters without reservations that the matter will be then referred to the Klan's Disciplinary Committee.

[redacted] mentioned that there is, in fact, no Klan Disciplinary Committee and that it was only said for the purpose of scaring [redacted] into maintaining silence about Klan matters.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

D. Reactivation of Inactive Members

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that during the latter part of March, 1967, [redacted] of Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio, embarked on a program to recontact inactive members who are carried on the rolls of Klavern #6 in an attempt to reactivate them.

To date, only about [redacted] inactive members have been recontacted, however, they have shown a renewed interest in the NKKKK.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to secure approval to instruct the Atlanta and Mobile Divisions to expeditiously and discreetly resolve the allegation set out above.

BACKGROUND:

Atlanta airtel of 6/27/67 set out information obtained from a racial informant to the effect that [REDACTED] advised the informant that he had learned from a Bureau employee in Washington, D. C., with whom he had attended high school in Dothan, Alabama, that [REDACTED] Bureau file, and approximately 40 or 50 other files had been sent to the Department of Justice.

We do not send files as such to the Department of Justice, but on a daily basis we are sending copies of investigative reports and other pertinent matters to the Department. Review of Bureau files reveals that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are subjects in the Bureau case captioned [REDACTED]; ET AL; [REDACTED] Victims; Civil Rights," Bureau file 44-30044. A copy of an investigative report in this matter dated 6/9/67 by Special Agent [REDACTED] at Savannah was transmitted to the Civil Rights Division of the Department on 6/12/67.

There is no indication from the information furnished by the informant that the alleged leak from Bureau files refers to this specific report; however, due to the coincidence of the date of the report and the date [REDACTED] advised the informant of this alleged contact with a Bureau employee, it is felt this matter must be expeditiously resolved.

The Mobile Division is expeditiously reviewing approximately 2,500 applicant investigation files covering the pertinent period in this matter in order to attempt to develop the identities of persons possibly acquainted with [redacted]. To date Mobile has advised the identities of 22 individuals who graduated from Dothan High School during the pertinent period and possibly may have known [redacted]. These files are being reviewed at the Seat of Government. In addition, it has been determined that none of the male employees in the Bureau mail room are from the Dothan, Alabama, area. It would appear that an individual working in the mail room possibly would have seen a report concerning [redacted] therefore, we specifically checked the background of the male clerks. As stated above, none are from the Dothan, Alabama, area.

The Resident Agent at Dothan, Alabama, recalls a recent visit to Dothan of a former Bureau employee.

[redacted], whose [redacted] is presently employed at the Seat of Government. [redacted] lived on the same street as [redacted] in Dothan at one time and attended Dothan High School from 1954 to 1960. [redacted] attended Dothan High School from 1956 to 1962. This possible relationship between [redacted] and [redacted] is being explored further. [redacted] is assigned Card Index Section, Identification Division.

The leave records of the Communications Section were checked and it was determined that none of the clerks who had annual leave showed travel to the Dothan, Alabama, or the Columbus, Georgia, areas.

You will be advised of all pertinent developments.

SYNOPSIS:

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise that investigation determined that the only present Bureau employee having contact with [redacted] did not have access to the type of Bureau information [redacted] is alleged to have obtained. This individual was identified as [redacted] [redacted] is a former Bureau employee who resigned 4/7/67. Both she and her husband emphatically denied furnishing any Bureau information.

By memorandum dated 6/30/67 from C. D. Brennan to Mr. W. C. Sullivan, captioned as above, it was set out that information was received from a racial informant to the effect that [redacted] a klansman, advised the informant he had learned from a Bureau employee in Washington, D. The Director instructed that the investigation concerning this allegation should be expedited.

Extensive file review conducted both in the field and at the Seat of Government revealed that there were 43 individuals who graduated from Dothan High School during the pertinent period who had applied and/or were employed by the Bureau. As a result of this action, it was determined that [redacted] presently assigned to the [redacted] Identification Division and married to former [redacted] [redacted] had contact with [redacted] during June, 1967. # I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters

Headquarters of the NKKKK is located in the Carl Garmon Building, Idlewood Road and Lawrenceville Highway, Tucker, Georgia.

[REDACTED]

B. Charter Information

A meeting of the NKKKK was held at the National Headquarters at Tucker, Georgia, September 6, 1964, at which meeting JAMES R. VENABLE announced to the group that he had incorporated the NKKKK and he stated it is being operated as a separate klan the same as the other Klans having membership in the national group.

[REDACTED]

The NKKKK was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

C. Objectives

The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social and benevolent order.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

In December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

[REDACTED]

D. National and State Officers

The NKKKK has two national officers. They are JAMES R. VENABLE who is Imperial Wizard and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] division of that organization.

AT 157-60

At a meeting of a group having a partial affiliation with the NKKKK held on April 25, 1967 in Marietta, Georgia, it was stated that [redacted] is to be the [redacted] for Georgia of the NKKKK. [redacted] was stated to reside on Johnson Ferry Road in Fulton County, Georgia, and was stated to be an [redacted]

During June, 1967 JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, made the statement that there would be no state officers of NKKKK and he would head up the organization within the state of Georgia as well as nationally.

On May 1, 1967, JAMES R. VENABLE stated that he wants the NKKKK to work on an individual klavern basis regardless of where they are organized and to work without a state organization, meaning that he would circumvent state control of the klaverns and the control of the individual klavern into the hands of the national headquarters.

E. Summary of Organizational Activity

The leadership of the NKKKK is handled by JAMES R. VENABLE who does not allow any other person to have a voice in the affairs of the organization. VENABLE constantly displays some bit of senility and absentmindedness as evidenced by the manner in which he conducts himself and contradicts himself. There is practically no organization of the NKKKK on a continuing basis.

[redacted] and [redacted]

During the early part of 1967, JAMES R. VENABLE had been in some contact with [redacted] former [redacted] of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, in the state of Alabama. VENABLE had been considering [redacted] as an individual who might be able to organize for the NKKKK in the state of Alabama. It is unlikely that [redacted] will participate in such organizing activities in behalf of the NKKKK.

As of February, 1967, members of the NKKKK in the state of Ohio operated loosely and they receive almost no cooperation from the national organization in Georgia.

VENABLE is an ineffective leader and often times does not attend meetings of the unit at Tucker, Georgia, even though that is where his membership is.

A. Name and Location of Units

The NKKKK has units at Barnesville and Thomaston, Georgia, which meet jointly at Barnesville. That unit has a membership of approximately eight to ten members. NKKKK has a unit which meets at the national headquarters at Tucker, Georgia, and has a membership of approximately twenty members.

In addition to the above units in the state of Georgia, NKKKK has a small unit which meets occasionally at Hartwell, Georgia. It has a membership of about eight men.

A unit is in existence in Cobb County, Georgia, which meets at the home of [redacted] on Powers Ferry Road. This group is affiliated in a loose way with both the NKKKK and Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.
